Oh! summer years of long age!
Oh! morning stars of all our life!
Ye shine upon the sea of time.
Through all the clouds of eare and strife.
Life's woof is marred by fate's cold shears,
All save the web of Other Years!

Oh! years of sunlight and of flowers!
Without a cloud, without a blight!
Life's waste, all bright with Eden bowe
From whence no birds e'er took their
For, ah! there grew no poison fears
In your blest fields, oh, Other years!

Oh! era of our childhood time!
Oh! land of light without a shade!
Thine are the only pleasant paths,
Wherein our wandering feet have strayed.
We walk in ways made wet with tears,
Sighing for ye, blest Other Years!

Oh! years immortal in your bloom! Ye stay within the far away. And through the rainy autumn time We turn, and flud ye always May. Ye ne'er are lost in mists of tears, Your skies are cloudless, Other Years!

The way through this dim after time
Is strewn with faded iris bows,
And broken rings, and garlands dead,
And there's a grave yard at the close
But, ah! no ivy, dark with feare,
Grew in your fields, fair Other Years!

But hush! faint heart, for far beyond Rises a land of fadeless bloom! Oh! wayward soul, to thus complain, Because thou gropest a while in gloor When, at the eve and more of night, There lives such plains of living light!

Arkansas Girls. The Memphis Express tells the following story a friend of the editor's who went over inte Arkansus recently to attend a "break-down," tha

Arkansas recently to attend a some arrayed in their best, with all the gay colors that an uncultivated taste could suggest. The gentlemen were dressed in home-spun clothes, and none but our friend had broad-cloth upon his back. During the evening, sweet potatoes of an enormous size, reasted in the ashes, were handed round to the company, together with a handful of salt for each guest. A beautiful young lady soon became smitten with our friend (perhaps with his magnificent moustaches,) and resolved to dance with him. She thereupon turned to a friend, and addressed her in these words:

there words:

"Sal, lold my tater while I trot round with that nice hose wat's got on store-clothes."

"Our friend was clinched accordingly. He could not extricate himself from the grip of the rustic beauty, and was obliged to 'trot round' after her for one mortal hour before he could obtain a respite from his labors. He made his escape the first opportunity, resolving that he would never again go to an Arkansas 'break-down.'"

Mrs. Partington is said to have anxiously asked if Uncle Tom is a better man than Enoch, of Biblical memory. She grounds her inquiry on the fact that she had heard that Uncle Tom had been translated soven times, while Enoch was translated but once.

Freing Appeal.—Shop-keeper—"That's a bad silvered over."

Customer—"Well, now, admitting such to be the fact, I should say that the ingenuity displayed in the deception might induce you to accept it. Admire. sir, the devotion of the artist to the divine idea of Liberty. Liberty, the idol of us all! He, having wrought her effigy in humble lead, in order to render it worthier of that glorious impression, resorts to the harmless expedient of silvering it over! And shall we harshly repudiate his work? Oh, no, sir! you'll take it, I know you wil!"

The following lines, says the Rochester American, may be seen on an old clock in Scrantom's auction store. The clock was made by "Tobias & Co., Liverpool and Loudon," and is a hundred years old. Still is "going," "going," like the auctioneer, and is likely to be "going," long after the auctioneer has been "struck off" and "gone!"

"I am old and worn as my face appears,
For I have walk'd on Time for a hundred years!
Many have fallen since I begun,
Many will fall ere my course is run!
I have buried the world with its hopes and fears,
In my long lone march of a hundred years."

AYER'S PILLS.

There has long existed a public domand for an effective Purgative Pill which could be relied on as sure and perfectly safe in its operation. This has been prepared to meet that demand, and an extensive trial of its virtues has conclusively shown with what success it accomplishes the purpose designed. It is easy to make a physical Pill, but not so easy to make the best of all Pills—one which should have none of the objections, but all the advantages of every other. This has been attempted here, and with what success we would respectfully submit to the public decision. It has been unfortunate for the patient hitherto that almost every purgative medicine is acrimonious and irritating to the bowels. This is not. Many of them produce so much griping pain and revulsion in the system as to more than counterbalance the good to be derived from them. These Pills produce no irritation or pais, unless it arises from a previously existing obstruction or derangement in the bowels. Being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity; but it is better that any medicine should be taken judiciously. Minute directions for their use in the several diseases to which they are applicable are given on the box. Among the complaints which have been speedily cured by them we may mention. Liver Complaint, in its various forms of Jaundice, Indigestion, Languor, and Loss of Appetite, Listlessness, Irritability, Bilious Headache, Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague, pain in the Side and Loins, for in truth, all these are but the consequence of diseased action of the hiver. As an apperion, they afford prompt and sure relief in Costiveness, Piles, Colic, Dysentery, Humors, Scrotula, and Scurvy, Colds, with soreness of the body, Ulcors and impurity of the blood. In short, any and overy case where a purgative is required.

of the body, Uleers and impurity of the blood. In short, any and every case where a purgative is required.

They have also produced some singularly successful cures in Rheumatism, Gost, Droppy, Gravel, Erysipelas, Palpitation of the Heart, Pains in the Back, Stomach and Side. They should be freely taken in the spring of the year, to purify the blood and prepare the system for the change of seasons. An occasional dose stimulates the stomach into healthy action, and restores the appetite and vigor. They purify the blood, and, by their stimulant action on the circulatory system, renovate the strength of the body, and restore the wasted or diseased energies of the whole organism. Hence an occasional dose is advantageous even though no serious derangement exist; but unnecessary dosing should never be carried too far, as every purgative modeine reduces the strength, when taken to excess. The thousand cases in which a physic is required cannot be enumerated here, but hey suggest themselves to the reason of every body; and it is confidently believed this pill will answer a better purpose than anything which has hitherto boen available to mankind. When their virtues are once known the public will no longer doubt what ramedy to amploy when in need of a cathartic medicine.

Being sugar-wrapped they are pleasant to take, and being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

For minute directions, see the wrapper on the Box. Prepared by Dr. JAMES C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

Price 25 cents per box. Five boxes for $1 00.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,
For the rapid cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitts, Whooping-Cough, Croup, Asthma, and Consumption.

This remedy has won for itself such notoricty for its cures of every variety of Pulmonary disease, that it is entirely unnecessary to recount the evidences of its virtues in any community where it has been employed. So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from slarming and even desperate disease of the lungs by its use. When once tried its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what anticots to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our elimate. And not only in formidable stacks upon the lungs, but for the milder varieties of Colds, Coughs, Hoarseness, &c., and for children it is the pleasantest and safest medicine that can be obtained.

As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best that it aver has been,
and that the genuine article is sold by

THE SECOND EXHIBITION OF THE METROPOLITAN MECHANICS INSTITUTE,

For the Promotion and Encouragement of Manufactures, Commerce, and the Mechanic and Useful Arts,

WILL be opened at the city of Washington on Thursday, the 8th day of February, 1855, in the new and spicodid hall of the Smithonian Institution, which is one of the most magnificent rooms in the United States.

To this Exhibition the Manufacturers, Mechanics,

ery Department will be under the

The Machinery Department will be under the charge of a special superintendent. Steam-power, fixtures, labor, &c., will be given free of expense.

All intending to exhibit are requested to give notice at as early a day as possible. Goods should be accompanied with a peoper invoice.

The committee, therefore, feel that, in inviting contributions, from all portions of the Union to the Second Echibition of the Metropolitan Mechanics' Institute, they are offering to the producer of excellent articles a valuable opportunity of making known to the whole country their novelty and utility, the superior style of their workmanship, and their adaptation to the purposes for which they may be intended.

They would respectfully solicit from the Ladienthose specimens of elegant handiwork which heretofore have formed so attractive and important a feature of these displays. It is proposed to submit all such contributions to a committee of indies, and to award to articles of merit premiums of jewelry, &c., suited to the tastes of the fair exhibitors.

The hall will be opened for the reception of goods on Monday, the 29th day of January, and on the evening of Thursday, the 5th of February, at seven o'clock, the Exhibition will be formally opened for the reception of visiters, and continue open about four weeks.

on Monday, the 24th of February, at seven of clock, the Exhibition will be formally opened for the reception of visiters, and continue open about four weeks.

No article deposited after Saturday night, 3d of February, can be entered upon the Judges Lists for competition or pramium except such as the committee shall be astisfed were dispatched from a distance in time to have reached the hall by that day, but failed to arrive from unavoidable detection.

Articles designed for exhibition only will be received free of charge until Tuesday night, 8th of February, at 10 o'clock; after which time depositors will be subject to a charge off from 60 cents to $1.00 for each article deposited.

Apprentices and minors who contribute articles of their own make or invention shall specify their age and the time they may have sorred at their business.

All articles deposited for competition and premium must be of American manufacture, conspicuously labelled with appropriate names, the name of the depositor; a copy of which label must be furnished the clerk at the time of bringing the goods for entry on the record. Prices may be affixed or not, at the option of the exhibition.

Depositors, at the time of centry, will receive a ticket of title to their goods, which ticket will also admit them to the exhibition at all times when open to the public.

N. H. Goods should be addressed as follows "Exhibition of the Metropelitan Mechanica' Institute, Washington, D. C.," and should have the nature of the craticles and the name of the party sending them distinctly marked on the psekages. They should also be accompanied by a detailed instructions will be forwarded, and any information given on application to the corresponding secretary, to whom all commingations on the business of the Institution should be addressed.

After many yours' patient experiment and research as a Pharmaceutist, the undersugand candidly believes that he has perfected a remody for the above and kindred complaints, which will cure at least ninety-five cases out of every hundred. He feels, very sensibly, that this sounds boastful and chimerical, but he has now used it, under his own observation, upon more than one thousand sovere cases without one failure.

Before asking the confidence of the public, however, and without making any drafts upon its credulity, the inventor of this medicine desires to show that his statements are not those of a reckless and unprincipled man. We therefore ask attention to the following joint certificate from the Hon. William A. Newell, M. D., late member of Congress from New Jersey, and A. D. Newell, M. D., an eminenty successful surgeon and physician, of New Brunswick, N. J.

"Having extensively used 'Deshler's Anti-periodic or Fever and Agus Fills,' in our practice, we take pleasure in stating thus publicly our experience of their efficacy. We have used them in hundreds of cases of fever and ague, and have never known a person to have a second chill after consmencing with them; and as they contain no mat of arsenic or quinine, the former of which sometimes operates so deleteriously as an accumulative poison, we consider them a safe and valueble remody, that ought to be within reach of every family that is liable to chills and fever. To our professional brethren we doem it proper to any, that we have been made acquainted with the composition of these pills, and find them strictly a scientific preparation. Moreover, as they are prepared by an apothecary of more thas twenty venes' active experience, we can vouch that they are akilfully compounded. We earnestly commend them to the notice of the profession, and believe they will care after all usual remedies have f tions made by them are worthy of pubic confidence."

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Jan. 24, 1854.

Owing to the floods of quack medicines with which the country has been deluged, and which have proved so uniformly worthless, the discoverer of this remedy has long hesitated to come before the public. Having regard for his character, he has been unwilling to be classed with the pretenders who, undertaking to cure any; and he has feared that the public, which has been so often shameleasty deceived, would deny him its attention. He relies, however, that the above certificates give him a title to its bundlence and attention while making the following statement:

We claim for our remedy the following peculiarities and advantages by which it is distinguished from others. era. Peculiarities of Deshler's Anti-Periodic Pills
